NOTES

¹ which could materially influence you in or in relation to the performance of the functions of your office by reason of the fact that such performance could so affect those interests as to confer on or withhold from your spouse or child of yours or child of your spouse a substantial benefit.

² "shadow directorship" means the position held by a person who is a shadow director within the meaning of the Companies Acts 1963 to 1990, or, in the case of a public body that is not a company (within the meaning of the Companies Act 1963) and is specified in subparagraph (8), (9), (10), (11), or (12), or stands prescribed for the purposes of subparagraph (13), of paragraph 1 of the First Schedule to the Ethics in Public Office Act 1995, the position held by the person in accordance with whose instructions or directions, the members of the body, or the members of the board or other body that controls manages or administers that body, are accustomed to act.

³ but excluding:

(i) a gift to the person by a relative or friend of the person or of his or her spouse, or of a child of the person or of his or her spouse, for purely personal reasons only, unless the acceptance of the gift by the person could have materially influenced the office holder in the performance of the functions of his or her office; and

(ii) a gift given to the person, or gifts given to the person by the same person, during the period comprehended by the statement, as respects which the value, or the aggregate value, of the property the subject of the gift or gifts did not exceed €650 at any time during the period comprehended by the statement.

⁴ other than property supplied or lent, or a service supplied to a person by a relative or friend of the person, or of his or her spouse, or of a child of the person or of his or her spouse, where such supply or loan was in the nature of a gift to the person and for personal reasons only, unless the acceptance of the property or loan or the service by the person could have materially influenced the office holder in the performance of the functions of his or her office.

⁵ insofar as services in (ii) and (iii) relate to legal or medical services (including psychiatric or psychological services), it will be sufficient to state that such services were supplied. No further details will require to be furnished.

⁶ but excluding:

(a) travel facilities, living accommodation, meals or entertainment provided

(i) within the State, or

(ii) in the course and for the purpose of:

- the performance of the functions of the person as a member of the Dáil or Seanad, or office holder, or

- the trade, profession, employment, vocation or other occupation of the person, or

(iii) in the case of a spouse, child or stepchild who is a member of the Dáil or Seanad, by the Inter Parliamentary Union, or by any of the other bodies specified in the Act or specified in guidelines published by the Committee on Members' Interests of the House of which the person is a member.

(b) travel facilities, living accommodation, meals or entertainment supplied to the person by a relative or friend of the person, or of his or her spouse, or of a child of the person or of his or her spouse, where such supply was in the nature of a gift to the person and for personal reasons only, unless the acceptance of such facilities, accommodation, meals or entertainment might reasonably be seen to have been capable of influencing him or her in the performance of his or her functions as a member of the Dáil or Seanad, or office holder;

(c) travel facilities, living accommodation, meals or entertainment supplied to the person, once or more than once by the same person during the period comprehended by this statement, free of charge if the commercial price, or the aggregate of the commercial prices, of the facilities, accommodation, meals or entertainment did not exceed €650; or

(d) travel facilities, living accommodation, meals or entertainment supplied to the person, once or more than once by the same person during the period comprehended by this statement, at a price or prices less than the commercial price or prices by not more than €650.

Statements of office holders' additional interests for Clerks.

13.—(1) A person who is an office holder on a registration date shall prepare a statement in writing, in such form as may be determined by the Minister or in a form to the like effect, of his or her additional interests (if any) and containing appropriate information in relation to such matters (if any) respecting those interests as may be specified in the first-mentioned form, being additional interests of the person—

(a) if the person is an office holder on the first registration date, or ceases to be an office holder before a registration date, at any time during the period from the passing of this Act to that date, and

(b) if the person is an office holder on a subsequent registration date, at any time when he was an office holder during the period between that registration date and the last previous registration date.

(2) It shall not be necessary to specify in a statement under subsection (1) the amount or monetary value of any additional interest or the remuneration of any trade, profession, employment, vocation or other occupation included in the statement.

(3) The Clerk shall, as soon as may be after the receipt by him or her of a statement under subsection (1), furnish a copy thereof to the Commission and (if it is a statement of a Minister of the Government or a Minister of State) the Taoiseach.

(4) A statement under this section of a person who is an office holder on any registration date shall be furnished by the person to the Clerk not later than 30 days after that date.

(5) In this section "additional interest", in relation to an office holder, means any interest specified in the Second Schedule of which the office holder has actual knowledge of—

(a) the spouse of the office holder, or

(b) a child of the office holder or of his or her spouse, which could materially influence the office holder in or in relation to the performance of the functions of his or her office by reason of the fact that such performance could so affect those interests as to confer on or withhold from the office holder or the spouse or child a substantial benefit.
